

Please allow the "Protect New Jersey's Do Not Call Law" to continue. The telephone advertisers do not have a right to continue to annoy someone who has stated that they do not want the calls. The voluntary do not call method where each Company is asked not to call is ineffective.